

DEATH

Grand Jury Verdict of a Jury

A Bomb Thrown Under His Carriage

Exploded, Tearing the Victim's

Littering the Snow.

Monroe, Feb. 14.—Within the walls of the far-famed Kremlin palace, and amidst undisturbed the historical

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

remains of the Russian emperor, the

POINTS ON APPENDICITIS

Jersey Good Samaritan Turns

Chances of Life

After the operation, the patient was in a fair way to recovery

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

and was expected to be out of

the hospital in a few days.

The patient was in good health

NEW ORLEANS WINE CELLAR

Fire After Dinner Talk That Lacked

the Element of Geographical

Experience.

A lady newly arrived in Washington,

after the dinner talk that lacked

the element of geographical

experience.

A lady newly arrived in Washington,

after the dinner talk that lacked

the element of geographical

experience.

A lady newly arrived in Washington,

after the dinner talk that lacked

the element of geographical

experience.

A lady newly arrived in Washington,

after the dinner talk that lacked

the element of geographical

experience.

A lady newly arrived in Washington,

after the dinner talk that lacked

the element of geographical

experience.

A lady newly arrived in Washington,

after the dinner talk that lacked

THE NEIGHBORS ALL

USE THEM NOW

Quick Cure of Rheumatism by Dood's

Remedy.

Goodman, Kan., Feb. 10th. (Special to the editor of the Standard)

I have been suffering from rheumatism for several years and have tried many remedies

but have not found any relief until I used Dood's Remedy.

I have now been cured and am able to go about my work as usual.

I am very grateful to you for the information you have given me.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,

Yours truly,

Goodman, Kan.

Goodman, Kan.

Goodman, Kan.

Goodman, Kan.

Goodman, Kan.

Goodman, Kan.

Goodman, Kan.

THE VERMONT GRIFF

Has an Ancient Precedent

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

THE VERMONT GRIFF

Has an Ancient Precedent

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

THE VERMONT GRIFF

Has an Ancient Precedent

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

THE VERMONT GRIFF

Has an Ancient Precedent

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

street to the North river ferry.

"Tidy the Bluff" says from his

little organ, and now he picks

up a quarrel and starts a

quarrel.

There is an ancient precedent

long known to those who go down

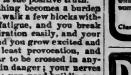

street to the North river ferry.

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

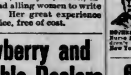

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

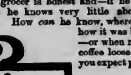

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

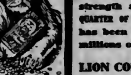

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

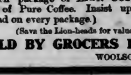

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

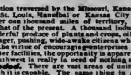

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

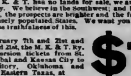

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

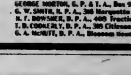

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

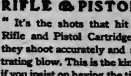

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

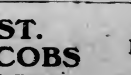

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

Portrait of a woman, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

Portrait of a man, likely a historical figure mentioned in the text.

LOOK ING CO.

IN ADVANCE.

Address all communications to The Oregonian, P. O. Box 100, Astoria, Ore. Subscribers desiring a change of address should notify us at once, enclosing old address and new address in full. The Oregonian is published every day except Sunday and holidays. It is sold at the rate of one cent per copy. The subscription price is $1.00 per year in advance. Single copies are sold at 10 cents. The Oregonian is published by The Oregonian Publishing Co., Astoria, Ore.

THURSDAY, FEB. 28, 1906.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce that E. Day, of Portland, has been elected to represent the district from both Washington and Oregon in the next session of the Oregon legislature. He is a well-known and successful business man, and his election is a great honor to the district.

It is a pleasure to announce that the Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

The Standard Oil Co. has been awarded the contract for the supply of oil for the government of Oregon for the next five years. This is a great honor for the company, and it shows the confidence of the government in their products.

Mr. Chas. Myers is improving. Edward Smart is on the sick list. Mr. Sterling Monday.

Miss Mary Sneider and Pearl Mackland, of Piquette, Ark., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Steele.

Mr. O. Irwin is sick. Fred Sker is on the sick list. Clyde Young has been very sick, but is much better now.

W. W. Ramsey, of Winchester, came Monday to visit friends. Lawrence White and wife, and Mr. Camp and wife called on C. H. Graves Sunday eve.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Miss Fannie Glover's school closed Thursday. Miss Glover will be very much missed in this community.

Mr. John K. Jones is complaining of rheumatism. Mrs. Richard Ferguson has been poorly.

Butler T. is better of his attack of rheumatism. James Sneider bought a cow and calf of Allen Spence for $30.

We have had another very cold week. It was some warmer Sunday. Eggs are 25 cents a dozen and butter 25 cents per pound and flour at $1.00.

There is an ice gorge in the south of State. It seems to be shut out from any communication west of State Creek.

Ira Neater, the oldest man in this neighborhood by ten years, ran the blockade of ice in State Creek Saturday and crossed safe and sound.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Mr. Chas. Myers is improving. Edward Smart is on the sick list. Mr. Sterling Monday.

Miss Mary Sneider and Pearl Mackland, of Piquette, Ark., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Steele.

Mr. O. Irwin is sick. Fred Sker is on the sick list. Clyde Young has been very sick, but is much better now.

W. W. Ramsey, of Winchester, came Monday to visit friends. Lawrence White and wife, and Mr. Camp and wife called on C. H. Graves Sunday eve.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Miss Fannie Glover's school closed Thursday. Miss Glover will be very much missed in this community.

Mr. Chas. Myers is improving. Edward Smart is on the sick list. Mr. Sterling Monday.

Miss Mary Sneider and Pearl Mackland, of Piquette, Ark., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Steele.

Mr. O. Irwin is sick. Fred Sker is on the sick list. Clyde Young has been very sick, but is much better now.

W. W. Ramsey, of Winchester, came Monday to visit friends. Lawrence White and wife, and Mr. Camp and wife called on C. H. Graves Sunday eve.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Miss Fannie Glover's school closed Thursday. Miss Glover will be very much missed in this community.

Mr. Chas. Myers is improving. Edward Smart is on the sick list. Mr. Sterling Monday.

Miss Mary Sneider and Pearl Mackland, of Piquette, Ark., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Steele.

Mr. O. Irwin is sick. Fred Sker is on the sick list. Clyde Young has been very sick, but is much better now.

W. W. Ramsey, of Winchester, came Monday to visit friends. Lawrence White and wife, and Mr. Camp and wife called on C. H. Graves Sunday eve.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Miss Fannie Glover's school closed Thursday. Miss Glover will be very much missed in this community.

Mr. Chas. Myers is improving. Edward Smart is on the sick list. Mr. Sterling Monday.

Miss Mary Sneider and Pearl Mackland, of Piquette, Ark., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Steele.

Mr. O. Irwin is sick. Fred Sker is on the sick list. Clyde Young has been very sick, but is much better now.

W. W. Ramsey, of Winchester, came Monday to visit friends. Lawrence White and wife, and Mr. Camp and wife called on C. H. Graves Sunday eve.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Miss Fannie Glover's school closed Thursday. Miss Glover will be very much missed in this community.

Mr. Chas. Myers is improving. Edward Smart is on the sick list. Mr. Sterling Monday.

Miss Mary Sneider and Pearl Mackland, of Piquette, Ark., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Steele.

Mr. O. Irwin is sick. Fred Sker is on the sick list. Clyde Young has been very sick, but is much better now.

W. W. Ramsey, of Winchester, came Monday to visit friends. Lawrence White and wife, and Mr. Camp and wife called on C. H. Graves Sunday eve.

James Rodgers, of Flat Creek, was here last week, visiting his sister Mrs. Augusta Sears.

Lafe Smith returned to Corvallis Wednesday, after three weeks' stay with his parents at Sour Springs.

But Clark and wife returned to their home at Corvallis Thursday, after a several week's stay at the bedside of the latter's father, Fred Threlkeld, who is much better.

West End. Steven Ward is very sick. We understand Salt Lake is to have a coming party.

From White and son Monday night—frozen to death. E. Stone and Howard Piersall have arrived at the butcher business at Seaside.

T. A. (Old Whistler) Piersall has rented a farm in Clark county and will move March 1.

J. R. Hatfield has moved to Llanowen county. One of Rowan's best horses, Lee Carr, has moved to Hatfield.

F. C. Nickell is still alive. His children had been telegraphed for and he is now at his bedside, but ten who are in the West.

Robert Dickerson was here Saturday collecting school fees. We probably had some something to say concerning it later.

Springfield. Raymond and Dwight Smithers were in Mr. Sterling Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Boyd Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hall visited at Corvallis from Sunday till Wednesday.

C. E. Smithers bought some clover hay from Barclay Bros. at $8 per ton.

On account of the cold weather the farmers of this community are losing a great many lambs.

A tobacco buyer was through the neighborhood last week, but the farmers would not sell.

Will Wynand went to Winchelsea, Del., to attend the funeral of his aunt Mrs. Mattie Clark, of St. Louis.

James Jones and James Ralfe bought 75 bushels of corn from Mrs. Sarah Thomas at $1.50 per bushel.

Miss Fannie Glover's school closed Thursday. Miss Glover will be very much missed in this community.